

PRODUCE WANTED!

We buy Potatoes, Onions, Eggs, Chickens, Beeswax, Tallow and every thing else we can handle.

Goods are sold at the very same price for produce as for cash. Bring us good stuff that will go on the market.

Reed & Burnett,
Crossville, Tenn.

Choice Hams

There is nothing more appetizing than a slice of our choice ham. We have them smoked or boiled as you prefer, and, fried or baked or cooked in any other of the many ways, they have a flavor you will not soon forget. We have anything you may want in the line of meats.

J. E. TAYLOR, Successor to
TAYLOR BROTHERS.

TEACHERS' MEETING

To be held at Woody Saturday, August 26, 1916.

Opening exercises.

Welcome address, Henry Woody.
Morals and Manners, Addie Henry and Mack Henry.

Starting Beginners, Edna Tanner.
First and Second Grade Work, Nota Hamby.

U. S. History, Grace Todd.
How to Teach Language Successfully, May Jones and Taylor Henry.

Teaching Agriculture in the Elementary Schools, Prof. J. S. Cline.

Noon—Basket Dinner.

Singing by the choir.

How to Keep the Schoolhouse Clean, Earl Baldwin.

Teaching Geography, Fred Hamby.
School Discipline, Carrie Shadden and Ollie Jones.

Physical Comforts of the Child, Has-sie Brown and Eliza Norris.

Co-operation in Community and School, discussion by patrons and teachers.

All teachers of the Second Division are expected to attend and all friends of education are cordially invited.

W. P. Baldwin, Chairman, Second Division.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Rev. M. A. Martin, Minister.
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.
Preaching every Sunday morning.
Everybody welcome.

A WOMAN'S KINDLY ACT.

Mrs. G. H. Eveland, Duncan Mills, Ill., writes: "I was stricken with lumbago, unable to turn in bed. A neighbor brought Foley Kidney Pills.
She had been similarly afflicted and they cured her. I was cured by three bottles." If the kidneys do not function, lumbago, rheumatism, aches, pains, are apt to result. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

The Art Circle will meet with Mrs.
Susie Dunbar this week.

Prof. H. H. Vincent and little daughter, Miss Amy, arrived Saturday from Rockwood, where they have been passing some weeks with relatives.

Mrs. John Taylor and little daughter, and sister, Miss Nancy Wells, of Ross-ville, Ga., are here visiting relatives and friends.

Last week Ernest S. Burnett was elected to a chair in Greenfield Training School, Greenfield, West Tennessee. Greenfield is a town of 2,000 people, located 110 miles west of Nashville and 96 miles north of Memphis.
It is in the heart of the best section of West Tennessee and is a town where many wealthy and refined people live.
Mr. Burnett is a gentleman amply qualified for the place and a man who never forgets to be a gentleman. His many friends here will wish him abundant success in his new work, which will commence September 5. The school has an enrollment of 300.

Farms, Farm Lands, Timber and Mineral Land

Twenty years active experience in surveying and abstracting.

Write me your wants.

A. J. MCGUIRE,
Crossville, Tennessee.

DON'T WORRY, but work.

Wood for sale—leave orders at E. P.
Brewers' store.

Attorney G. C. Peek was in Nashville last week on business. On his return trip he stopped off for a brief visit with homefolks in Overton county.

Dr. B. T. McDonald, of Dayton, will be here to do dental work from August 20 to 30. 8-9-3t.

M. W. West completed a drilled well for J. B. Johnson on his residence property. It is down 76 feet with a good flow of water.

A revival meeting will commence in the Baptist church Sunday.

Mrs. Olive K. Barnes is expected here this week for a visit of a few days with Crossville friends.

If you want pencils, fountain pens, pen points, ink wells, library paste, or paper fasteners come to the Chronicle office for them.

Plenty of small single entry ledgers at the Chronicle office; 180 pages only 35 cents.

Wednesday afternoon from four to six Misses Eula and Mary Bishop entertained with a tea complimenting Miss Louise Abbott, Columbus, Ohio, and Miss Lois Lindsay, Lawrenceville, Ill. About fifty young people called during the afternoon to meet the two guests. Mrs. L. W. Martin presided at the table, where iced tea, sandwiches, cheese sticks, cakes and mints were served. The decorations were a profusion of golden glow and "black eyed Susans." A number of other out-of-town guests were present.

Crane's stationery by the quire and envelopes by the bunch at the Chronicle office. Nothing made better than Crane's.

Miss Fannie DeGolia and Mrs. L. W.
Martin entertained at cards Thursday afternoon complimentary to Miss Louise Abbott. Those playing besides the hostesses and honoree were: Mrs.
Frank Potter, Misses Bessie Potter, Lola Belle Snodgrass, Eula and Mary Bishop. Late in the afternoon fruit salad, wafers, cheese sticks, coffee, sherbet and cakes were served.

At the Chronicle office you can get pen tablets, examination tablets, fountain pen ink in five and ten cent bottles, pocket note books, stenographer's note books, Crane's fine stationery in two-quire boxes and other stationery such as you do not find elsewhere in this county.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. F. J. Upham gave a pretty party for a few friends. There were two tables of cards and those playing besides the hostess were: Mesdames L. W. Martin, Volner Hamby, Geo. E. Taylor and Misses Fannie DeGolia, Ethel Keyes, Eula Bishop and Louise Abbott. The rooms were made beautiful with vases of white hydrangeas. Chicken salad, sandwiches, coffee, sherbet, angel food cake and mints were served.

Through a recent letter we learn that Rev. C. V. Bellamy is now at the home of his father at Yuma, Va., and is feeling fine, since recovering from the effects of two operations in the Lincoln Memorial hospital, Knoxville, last March, and he will enter upon his ministerial work again with the convening of the M. E. conference this fall. This will be pleasing news to many friends.

J. T. Snodgrass was here from Chattanooga the first of the week. Last week he severed his business relations with the land company at Fellsmere, Fla., and will make his headquarters in Chattanooga from now on. Mrs.
Snodgrass is there and the family will arrive this week.

Miss Cora Haley, of Chattanooga, and Miss Lou Haley, of Friendsville, are guests of their cousin, Miss Violet Haley.

Miss Violet Haley returned from Harriman last week, where she had been the guest of Misses Daisy and Stella Molen.

Samuel Cline is now confined to his room all the time and has been for some days. While he is not suffering seriously the weight of his years is becoming a heavy burden for him along with the oppressive weather. He is receiving every care that loving hands can bestow but is gradually growing weaker and his passing to the other world would be no surprise to his family and friends.

Several car loads of young people motored out to Daddys Creek Friday afternoon for a swim and a picnic supper.

Miss Anne Melvin and her guest Miss Edna Berkele, who were guests of friends here for several days, returned to Waldensia last week.

Choice Meats

When you want a choice cut of meat, something nice to boil, hamburger or sausag, come to our shop. We handle as good meat as can be bought and our prices are very reasonable.

Lunches

You can get a quick lunch any time. Get a bowl of soup here for Five Cents that will make you feel as good as a full meal.

FARMERS' MEAT MARKET.

Free Sale

Crab Orchard,
Saturday, Sept. 2, Beginning 10 a. m.

Lot of Hats, Shoes, Caps; Hardware, Groceries, Notions will be given away ABSOLUTELY FREE.

There are no strings to this. You don't have to buy anything. Just be there and get them.

ROOM IS WHAT WE WANT.

We have the largest and most complete line of merchandise coming in for the fall and winter trade that we ever had at one time before.

WE BOUGHT

them before advances and we are going to sell them cheaper than any body else can.

Don't forget the date of the sale-- SEPTEMBER 2.

Reed & Burnett,
Crab Orchard, Tenn.

The men who lead are the men who read

Gasoline for sale at the Chronicle office.

Russell Moore, of Harriman, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Baxter Southard.

Miss Ida Wray Bell went to Clifty last week to pass a few days with friends.

Bring all your old magazines, Ladies Home Journals, Pictorial Reviews and such like magazines to the Chronicle office and we will pay you 50 cents a hundred pounds.

Next Sunday morning at the Congregational church the pastor will preach on "Christ and Life." Everybody welcome.

Miss Antoinette Jackson was the guest of friends in Sparta at a weekend house party last week.

Plenty of Time Books at the Chronicle office; two weeks' size and monthly, only 10c. Stenographers' note books also.

Miss Elizabeth March spent the week-end with Miss Gladys Davenport in Grassy Cove.

Mrs. L. L. Wortham and Mrs. F. A.
Bacher were in from Pomona Monday.

Come to the Mecca Friday night, August 25th, to see a special feature.
Half the proceeds will go to the Eastern Star and there will be splendid special music. Admission 10c and 20c.

Miss Vivian Dunbar and little brother Waldo went to Deer Lodge Monday to visit their aunt, Mrs. T.
Wiedemann.

Miss Beryl Lushbough left Monday for Michigan where she will pass the winter with relatives and friends.

Miss Ida Wray Bell entertained a few of her friends at her home Friday night. The evening was spent with games and music, after which refreshments were served.

Yesterday afternoon Miss Ethel Keyes entertained at her home with rook and Five Hundred in honor of Misses Lou Haley, Friendsville, Cora Haley, Chattanooga, and Louise Abbott, Columbus, Ohio. The others present were: Mesdames Volner Hamby, F. J. Upham, Geo. E. Taylor, L.
W. Martin and Misses Violet Haley, Eula Bishop, Lola Belle Snodgrass, Fannie DeGolia and Gladys Comstock.
Delicious salad and ice courses, consisting of pimiento salad with Dutch cheese, sandwiches, coffee, chocolate cream and cake were served after the games.

Yesterday G. M. Martin completed the work of dressing up the Memphis-to-Bristol highway west of Crossville and is now at work on the east end.
He did splendid work and the public is much pleased with the results.

If you want score cards and pencils, paper napkins, nice writing paper cut to special size come to the Chronicle office for them.

Attorney S. N. Smith is in Jamestown this week attending circuit court.

Miss Dora Dreutzer, accompanied by Mrs. T. E. Combs, of Chattanooga, are visiting Miss Dreutzer's parents here.

Judge C. E. Snodgrass is holding court at Jamestown this week.

Found—A Masonic pin. Describe it and take it.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Kearley were up from Vandever Monday. They drove up with Mrs. Mary Matthews, of Chattanooga, who had been visiting them for a short time. Mrs. Matthews has been passing some weeks here visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. McClarney.

B. D. Lemert has just used a car of crushed lime on land he is preparing for clover.

The Newton postoffice was discontinued yesterday and from now on all mail intended for Newton will go to Winesap. Thos. Kerley was postmaster but will teach school this fall as has been his custom for several years.

It seems that our information as to the assignment of the Taylors Chapel school was an error. We learn that the school was assigned to Miss Mary Spencer instead of Miss Minnie Jones, as we published it. Owing to the sickness of Mrs. H. L. Spencer Miss Mary Spencer could not teach the school and it was then given to Herman Hendley, who is now teaching there.

Saturday will be Tag Day with the Epworth League young people. Do not dodge if some handsome young lady approaches you and wants to tie a tag on you for a couple of jitneys. The young people are adopting this method of helping to raise a fund to assist church charities. It is a worthy cause and costs very little; help them to the extent of at least one dime.

1000 pounds
Arbuckle
Coffee 20c
Granulated Sugar
11 pounds for $1.00
E. P. BREWER